COMMITTEE AGENDA MEMORANDUM

Diversity & Inclusion Ad Hoc Committee

SUBJECT:

RECOMMENDATION:
Receive information on the Office of Racial Equity, Diversity and Inclusion (REDI) program activities and progress.

SUMMARY:
Since the last Diversity and Inclusion (D&I) Ad Hoc Committee meeting on July 22, 2021, the Office of Racial Equity, Diversity, and Inclusion (REDI), has made additional progress in advancing equity, diversity and inclusion efforts, outlined in the resolution “Addressing Systemic Racism and Promoting Equity,” which was adopted by the Board of Directors on September 22, 2020.

Since the July 22, 2021 D&I Ad Hoc Committee meeting, REDI staff has accomplished the following:

- Conducted a Cultural Speaker Series in collaboration with the Association of Black Employees (ABE) Employee Resource Group (ERG) on August 5, 2021 entitled “Difficult conversations on racism, health, voting rights and how to be a good ally to the African American Community.” The event included a panel of four guest speakers and engaged 83 attendees
- Initiated work on Valley Water’s first Racial Equity, Diversity and Inclusion Strategic Master Plan development effort on October 18
- Completed review of Valley Water’s first employee equity assessment effort which will help inform the development of the Strategic Master Plan
- Hosted an all-employee Lunch & Learn session on Environmental Justice with Vernice Miller-Travis, Executive Vice President for Environmental and Social Justice at the Metropolitan Group on October 19 to educate and inform Valley Water’s workforce on these issues. Approximately 97 Valley Water staff attended this recorded session
- Collaborated with Human Resources to initiate a series of professional development trainings for managers and supervisors that explains unconscious bias and addresses methods of identification and managing its effects, on October 21
- Collaborated with the Organization for Latino Affairs (OLA) ERG to host REDI’s third cultural speakers’ panel on October 28. Speakers included: Dr. Carlos Sanchez from San Jose State University (SJSU); Dr. Ann Lopez from the Center for Farmworker Families; Robin Lopez from the Lawrence Berkeley National Lab. COMMITTEE AGENDA MEMORANDUM

Diversity & Inclusion Ad Hoc Committee

SUBJECT:

RECOMMENDATION:
Receive update on the Equity Assessment Report and accept the Report.

SUMMARY:
In February 2021, Valley Water worked with the consultant The Justice Collective (TJC), to launch Valley Water’s first-ever Employee Equity Assessment, to assess the organization’s internal racial and equity climate and inform the development of future program activities to address any gaps. Goals of the assessment included: understanding opportunities to increase racial equity, diversity, and inclusion across business areas, measure demographics of staff, capture baseline attitudes around racial equity and work culture dynamics, and assess staff’s understanding of diversity, equity, and inclusion, within the scope of Valley Water’s program mission.

The assessment included a staff survey, several staff interviews, focus groups, and review of key organizational documents. The assessment achieved a 60% response rate (451 responses total out of approximately 750 Valley Water staff members at the time). Additionally, two focus groups were organized, and 13 key staff throughout the organization were selected for more in-depth interviews. The report addresses Valley Water’s strengths and challenges in the areas of equity, diversity and inclusion.

Some of Valley Water’s strengths include: Valley Water has invested in an organizational infrastructure to support REDI work, Valley Water is well-respected and considered to be a diverse organization, majority of staff believe that Valley Water is a great place to work, and a majority of staff are comfortable engaging in REDI work.

Survey data (of the participants who took the survey) on strengths include:

- 93% of staff say racial equity work is important to the work and priorities of leadership Valley Water;
- 91% say racial equity work is important to the work and priorities of Valley Water;
• 88% say Valley Water is a great place to work;

• 83% are comfortable when they have to engage in work related to equity, diversity and inclusion at Valley Water.

The consultant identified five critical focus areas for Valley Water to advance racial equity, diversity, and inclusion:

1. Office of REDI;

2. Hiring, recruitment, and human resources;

3. Organizational culture;

4. Environmental justice;

5. Community engagement and local capacity building.

Survey questions included questions on challenging issues such as: nepotism, inclusion/exclusion, discrimination/favoritism, inappropriate statements directed at individuals or groups, unfair treatment, or intimidation. Staff survey responses on perceived problematic or challenging issues of how often they witnessed or directly experienced problematic or challenging issues on the following were:

• 19% gender constantly/all the time

• 18% age and ageism constantly/all the time

• 12% race and racism constantly/all the time

• 11% class constantly/ all the time

• 5% sexual orientation constantly/all the time

• 4% ability/disability constantly/ all the time

Below are the top ten recommendations to address in the immediate future towards more racially equitable, diverse, and inclusive outcomes:

1. Establish Business Area REDI Liaisons.

2. Implement Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion (DEI) frameworks and analysis across all focus areas to operationalize DEI interventions.

3. Increase transparency about process and procedures.

4. Develop a Valley Water Values Statement to ensure equity and fairness.

5. Improve hiring process and mitigate for bias by training all hiring managers and panelists.
6. Resource and implement required gender spectrum and bias training program across the organization beyond existing sexual harassment training.

7. Publicly acknowledge current challenges related to gender, workplace safety and address perceived gender-bias at Valley Water.

8. Name and establish core competencies so staff gain a concrete understanding of expectations for interpersonal behavior related to DEI.

9. Advance environmental justice efforts to align with State and County goals for water quality and other climate initiatives.

10. Consider allocating budget for a dedicated Tribal Liaison to build authentic relationships with Tribes.

The Office or REDI has begun implementing some of the report’s recommendations. In October, a new staff member was hired who is serving in a newly created role of Tribal Liaison, a role that serves as the lead point of contact between Valley Water and the first nation communities of Santa Clara County. And a new Environmental Justice Workgroup has been formed that is working on the development of environmental justice protocols.

In the coming weeks, the results of the equity assessment will be shared with all Valley Water staff with a focus on addressing the report’s recommendations. The Office of REDI, in collaboration with Human Resources and other Valley Water offices, will work toward increased levels of employee satisfaction in identified areas. Measurements of employee satisfaction will be taken in future all employee surveys.

Further, this equity assessment will be utilized by the Cordoba Group, the consultant recently engaged by the Office of REDI, to perform a Master Plan for Valley Water. The assessment will help inform the development of the Master Plan by identifying areas in which the organization needs to create or modify policies and procedures that will create greater fairness and equity in our business operations practices.
