COMMITTEE AGENDA MEMORANDUM

Redistricting Advisory Committee

SUBJECT:
Redistricting Advisory Committee Training Session #2.

RECOMMENDATION:
Receive background information on several topics related to the Redistricting Advisory Committee’s operational and legal responsibilities in reviewing 2020 census data and recommending adjustments in district electoral boundaries.

SUMMARY:
The District Act, in addition to federal and state law, requires that the boundaries of the Santa Clara Valley Water District’s (Valley Water’s) electoral districts be adjusted, if needed, following a decennial federal census.

Adjustments of electoral districts are accomplished through the completion of a redistricting study to ensure that each modified district meets the one-person, one-vote test and to ensure compliance with the federal Voting Rights Act.

On January 26, 2021, the Board approved the establishment of the Redistricting Advisory Committee (RAC). The RAC consists of seven members of the public representing each of the seven districts appointed by the seven members of the Board. The RAC will oversee a redistricting study, including receiving public input on electoral district boundaries, and will recommend maps containing any needed boundary adjustments for the Board’s review and adoption.

On April 20, 2021, the RAC held its orientation meeting. Over the months of June, July and August, the RAC will conduct three training meetings to receive background and operational information that will be useful in carrying out its duties. The RAC training meeting of June 23 focused on providing background information on redistricting principles. This second training meeting will provide a presentation, led by Valley Water’s Redistricting Legal Counsel and will feature information on the application of the Brown Act, adoption of bylaws, governance process, and rules for the conduct of meetings.

PART I
THE BROWN ACT:
California’s Open Meetings Law

July 14, 2021
PURPOSE AND GOALS

Transparency Goals
• Public access to meetings
• Public access to deliberations
• Public participation
• Public access to documents
LEGISLATIVE INTENT: STATUTORY

Two key parts of the Brown Act have not changed since its adoption in 1953. One is the Brown Act’s initial section, declaring the Legislature’s intent:

“In enacting this chapter, the Legislature finds and declares that the public commissions, boards and councils and the other public agencies in this State exist to aid in the conduct of the people’s business. It is the intent of the law that their actions be taken openly and that their deliberations be conducted openly.”

“The people of this State do not yield their sovereignty to the agencies which serve them. The people, in delegating authority, do not give their public servants the right to decide what is good for the people to know and what is not good for them to know. The people insist on remaining informed so that they may retain control over the instruments they have created.”

LEGISLATIVE INTENT: CONSTITUTIONAL

The people reconfirmed that intent in the November 2004 election by adopting Proposition 59, amending the California Constitution to include a public right of access to government information:

“The people have the right of access to information concerning the conduct of the people’s business, and, therefore, the meetings of public bodies and the writings of public officials and agencies shall be open to public scrutiny.”

BROWN ACT: BASIC RULE

The Brown Act’s other unchanged provision is a single sentence:

“All meetings of the legislative body of a local agency shall be open and public, and all persons shall be permitted to attend any meeting of the legislative body of a local agency, except as otherwise provided in this chapter.”

BROWN ACT: BASIC RULE

• All meetings of a legislative body of a local agency shall be open and public.

• Exceptions are few & narrowly construed.
“LEGISLATIVE BODY”

1) The governing body of the local agency
2) Any commission, committee, or board, permanent or temporary, decision-making or advisory, created by a formal act of the local agency
3) Governing body of private organization if:
   a) Created by legislative body; or
   b) Receives funds from the agency and legislative body has appointed a full voting board member
Is the Redistricting Advisory Committee subject to the Brown Act?

Yes. The Redistricting Advisory Committee is a committee created by formal action of the local agency, in this case, the Board of Directors of the Valley Water District.

In addition, the Board of Directors specified that the Committee “will be subject to the requirements of the Ralph M. Brown Act.”
NOT “LEGISLATIVE BODY”

A temporary advisory committee composed solely of less than a quorum of the legislative body that serves a limited or single purpose
• Sometimes referred to as “ad hoc committees”

Contrast with “standing committees,” which are Brown Act bodies:
• Continuing subject-matter jurisdiction; or
• Meeting schedule fixed by formal action of body
“MEETING”

1) When a majority of the members;
2) Are present at the same time and place;
3) To “hear, discuss, deliberate, or take action”;
4) On any item within the subject-matter jurisdiction of the legislative body.
SERIAL “MEETINGS”

Individual communications can become invalid serial “meetings” in various ways:

1) CHAIN: Member A contacts Member B, and Member B contacts Member C, etc.

2) HUB AND SPOKE: A contacts B; A contacts C...

3) INTERMEDIARY: An intermediary contacts a majority of members sharing information between members.
SERIAL MEETINGS

May occur through discussing/sharing views through a series of:

• Emails
• Text messages
• Phone conversations
• Face-to-face conversations
• Social media posts and comments on these posts, including emojis
A few more words about electronic communication:

Technology presents Brown Act challenges. Common email practices of forwarding or replying to messages can easily lead to an illegal serial meeting, as can participation by members in a social media dialogue.

But even when there is no violation, electronic communications during meetings may create the perception that private communications are influencing the outcome of decisions; some agencies ban the practice.
STAFF COMMUNICATIONS – NOT A MEETING

District staff may communicate with members of a legislative body:

• in order to answer questions or provide information regarding a matter that is within the subject matter jurisdiction of that body,

• if that person does not communicate to members of the legislative body the comments or position of any other member of the legislative body

• CAVEAT: “Reply all” can convert a legitimate contact into a Brown Act violation
“MEETING” EXCEPTIONS

Attendance by a majority of members at:

1) An open and publicized conference
2) An open and publicized community forum
3) An open and publicized meeting of another legislative body
4) A purely social or ceremonial occasion

IF . . .
NOT A “MEETING”

... The members DO NOT discuss among themselves business that is within the subject-matter jurisdiction of their legislative body.
TELECONFERENCING

Body may meet by teleconference, through audio or video or both, for all purposes, IF:

1) All votes taken by roll call

2) Each location identified in agenda, and agenda posted at each location

3) Public access and comment rights protected at each location

4) At least a quorum of members participate from within the jurisdiction
BROWN ACT AND COVID

EO N-29-20 allows public meetings to be held by video, teleconference or other electronic means and suspends certain teleconferencing requirements:

• Identifying physical locations of each teleconferencing location in agenda; Posting agendas at each teleconferencing location; Public access at each teleconferencing location; Quorum within the jurisdiction
• This Executive Order is set to expire September 30, 2021.
BROWN ACT AND COVID

Under EO N-29-20 the RAC is still required to:

• Notice public meetings and post agendas in accordance with Brown Act time-frames
• Provide information by which members of the public may observe and offer public comment
• Advertise and implement a procedure for receiving and resolving reasonable ADA accommodation requests
REGULAR MEETINGS

• Must be held at the time and place set by ordinance, resolution, or by-laws.

• Agenda posted at least 72 hours in advance.
  • Include a brief general description of each item to be discussed or acted upon
  • Specify the time and location of the meeting
  • Posted in a location that is freely accessible to members of the public and on the website
SPECIAL MEETINGS

• May be called by presiding officer of legislative body (Chairperson) or a majority of the members.

• Written notice to each member of body, local newspaper requesting notice, and posted on agency website 24 hours before meeting.
NON-AGENDA ITEMS

General Rule: No action or discussion may be taken on any item not on the posted agenda.

• “Action” means
  • A collective decision of a majority
  • A collective commitment or promise of a majority
  • An actual vote by a majority
ALLOWED REACTION TO NON-AGENDA ITEMS

A member of the public is not limited by the agenda and may raise matters that are not on it, but within the jurisdiction of the RAC (i.e., “non-agenda public comment”). RAC members may:

• “Briefly respond” to public comment
• Ask a question for clarification
• Make a brief report on own activities
• Provide reference for factual information
• Request that staff report back or that an item be placed on future agenda
CLOSED SESSION

In general, the exceptions allowing for closed sessions are limited and narrowly construed. They include:

1) Personnel Matters - performance evaluation, discipline, complaints against an employee
2) Real Estate Negotiations – price and terms
3) Litigation – existing, pending, threatened
4) Labor Negotiations
5) Security of Public Buildings
BROWN ACT AND ACCESSIBILITY

Basic rule: Meetings must be accessible per ADA - “reasonable accommodations.”

• Agendas must be made available in appropriate alternative formats upon request
• No meetings at location that is “inaccessible to disabled persons.”
RIGHTS OF THE PUBLIC

- Right to attend meetings without registering name or providing other information

- Right to record proceedings with camera, audio or visual recorder, unless persistently disruptive

- Right to address the body on each item of business on the agenda and any other matter so long as the item is within the subject matter jurisdiction of the legislative body.
  - May impose reasonable time limits on public comment.
RIGHTS OF THE PUBLIC

• Right to criticize the RAC’s policies, procedures, programs, or services, as well as employees and officers acting within the scope of their official capacity.

• Right to inspect/obtain agendas and any other non-exempt writings made available to a majority of members at the meeting.
REMEDIES

Civil Action
• Opportunity to cure
• Stop future violation or invalidate past violation
• Attorneys’ fees and costs recoverable

Criminal Charges
• Misdemeanor
• Requires intent to deprive public of information
